

POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP IN ADULT ANXIETY/MOOD DISORDERS AT THE CENTER FOR ANXIETY & RELATED DISORDERS AT BOSTON UNIVERSITY.

The Center for Anxiety & Related Disorders (CARD) at Boston University invites applications for post-doctoral fellowship positions in adult anxiety and mood disorders. Successful candidates will be involved in research and clinical responsibilities for a longstanding, NIMH-supported project on the classification, psychopathology, genetics, and course of anxiety and mood disorders. Opportunities exist for participation in data analysis/manuscript preparation, grant writing, and collaborative research ongoing at CARD. The position will provide postdoctoral clinical hours and supervision necessary for licensure. Upon completion of two postdoctoral fellowship years, promotion to Research Assistant Professor and membership in the faculty of the Clinical Psychology Program at BU may be available. Applicants should have completed their doctoral degree by the start of employment. Experience/interest in multivariate statistics/latent variable modeling is a plus. Search remains open until position is filled. Competitive salary and fringe benefits.

To apply, send a curriculum vitae, letter of interest, selected reprints, and three letters of recommendation to: Dr. Timothy A. Brown, Center for Anxiety & Related Disorders, Boston University, 648 Beacon Street, 6th floor, Boston, MA 02215-2013 (applications may also be sent via email to tabrown@bu.edu). Boston University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer.
